Oh, wad some power the giftie gie Us-

To see ourselves as others see us !

Weeping may endure for a night,

Tommie Harris

"Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."
St. John 15:13

We may think that this page is in memory of Tommie—to remind us of him; however it actually serves to remind us that life is fleeting and that we must find our purpose in our lives whether we have many days or few. Life's fullest reward is achieved only when we give ourselves to something far more precious than life. Thus in dying, Tommie gave us the legacy of his life. Let us live for him as well as ourselves ...

but joy cometh in the morning.

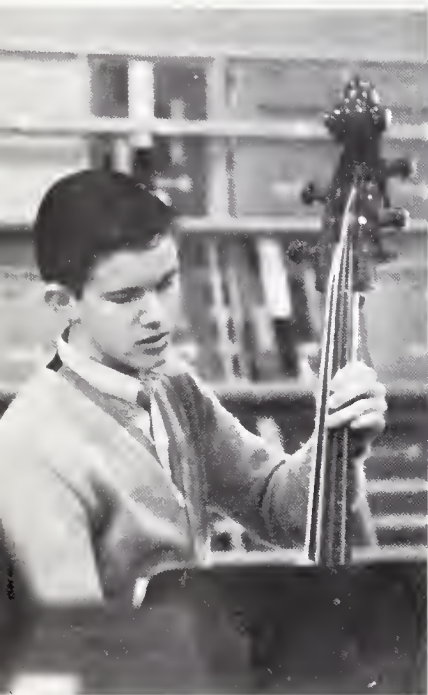

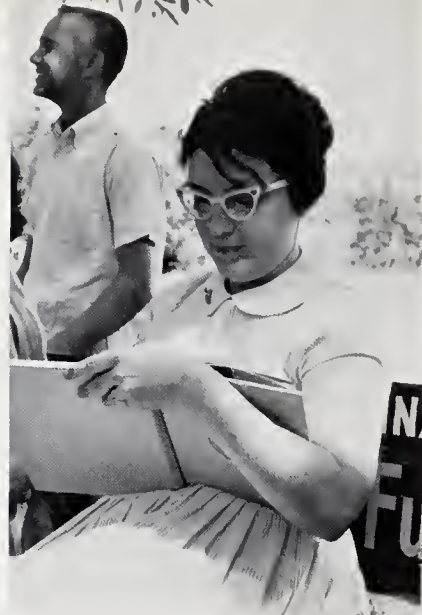

"O Lord, let us not live to be useless."
—John Wesley

Mr. Donald Cotton

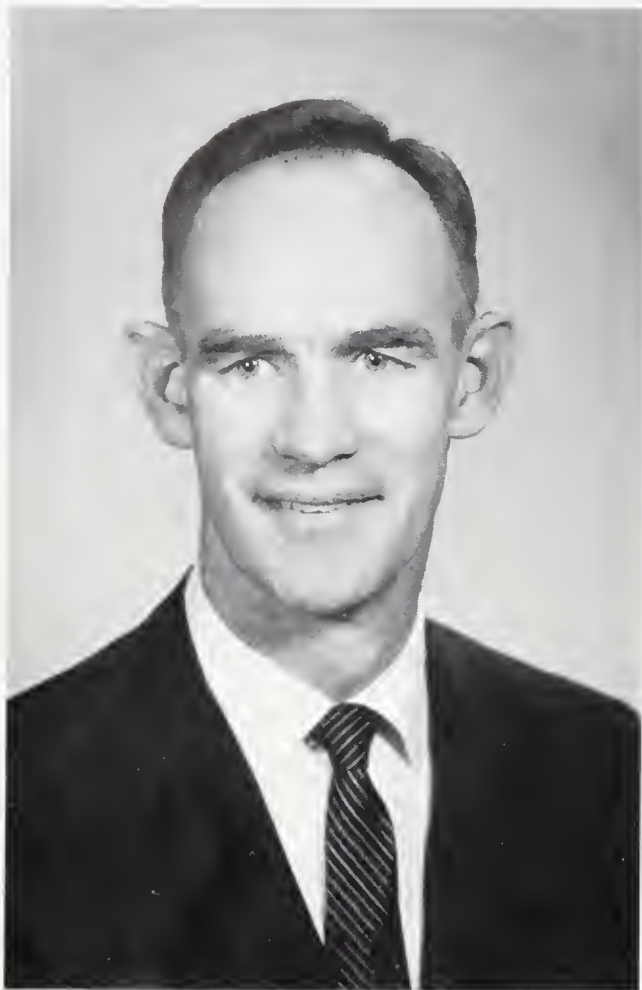

We, the Senior Class of 1966, do proudly dedicate our annual to a person of high moral integrity and one whose spirit and enthusiasm for life flows over into everything which is attempted. The life of this teacher has been an influence on many of us. To you, Mr. Donald Cotton, goes a token of our esteem through this annual dedication.

Administration

Principal

Mr. I. P. Davis, Jr., Principal

In the Book of Proverbs we find the following passages:

"The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge, but fools despise wisdom and instruction."

"Train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it."

And from the 127th Psalm: "Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it."

A sound mind, a sound body, a healthy spiritual, moral and social attitude, and a stable emotional system - these are essential characteristics of a worthy and successful person - and lead to a happier life.

These are the fundamental traits we who are responsible for your training and development here at Fuquay Springs High School are vitally concerned with when we strive to guide and help you in fulfilling your total development and growth in preparation for entering the world you will encounter on leaving school here.

You are surrounded by the greatest opportunities youth has been graced with in the history of mankind; but you are also enveloped by the greatest problems youth has ever been plagued with.

It is tremendously important that during your time here in school you be afforded opportunities and experiences to enable you to make critical evaluations and wise judgments - for each decision you make is tending to move you either toward the greater opportunities of life or toward the greater problems.

The late President John F. Kennedy said: "Education is both the foundation and unifying force of our democratic way of life ... it is the highest expression of achievement in our society" - so take the fullest possible advantage of your time in school, and the opportunities it provides for you.

Always remember that achievement is the product of inspiration, preparation, diligence and determination. Success is never final, and failure never fatal. There are many apparent defeats that are more triumphant than apparent victories - where greater learning and growth result from these apparent defeats, and sounder character traits are developed.

Reflections of our Past

“The present is our own; but while we speak, it ceases to be our possession—“Time has flown by and here we are at the top of the ladder—but let’s go back to the bottom rung and bring back some of our golden memories—

The Freshman Year:

Remember . . . Our first day in high school—new Willow “Springites”—forgetting our locker combinations—mad rushes to lunch and being late for fourth period—jogging via “Green Goose” for physicals at Health Department—am-ing and amas-ing—burning the midnight oil over projects for Great Expectations—cold showers—late hours on band trip to Myrtle Beach—“I must not talk . . .” and standing in corner in Algebra 1—sneaker and bobby socks enthusiast for physical ed. teacher—smell of burnt bacon from Home Ec. building—Elephant Ears and his yardstick—our first Annual Day—and

The Sophomore Year:

Remember . . . “Stand up and stretch”—voting on World History tests—student teachers—insect collection—philosophy classes in biology—make-up and props—Romeo and Juliet—getting caught in the wrong rooms on band trip to Sun Fun Festival—almost a championship in basketball—losing a fellow classmate—plays and a trip to Chapel Hill—Home Ec. dressmakers—Latin play for chapel—Silas Marner—dissecting Freddy the frog—hula girls and boys for “Hawaiian Paradise”—drivers’ licenses—and

The Junior Year:

Remember . . . Selling all those magazines—water tower and ’66’s originality—PSAT—Career Day—Donkey basketball game; getting a kick out of the teachers’ falls—U. S. history and Miss Lola—World’s Finest Chocolate—arguing with Euclid—Beta Club tapping—explosions in Chemistry lab—powderpuff practices for “men” and “cheerleaders” and finally the game with its court of beauty(?)—“Rain” themes—Beta Convention and ice skating—hanging out at Tastee Freeze—searching the woods for ivy—slaving over Jr. Sr.: streamers galore; roses, roses and more roses; squawking ducks and splashing waterfall—“Moonlight and Roses”—parlezvousing with a La Grange accent—Hubba Hubba Sister—Williamsburg: freezing temperatures, card tricks, lantern strolls, and midnight pizzas—Our Town—solemn marshals—and

The Senior Year:

Remember . . . New captain at the controls of school—selling the best candy in the world—peck, peck-ring—College Day—2nd Annual Powderpuff game: Gorgeous cheerleaders and majorettes; our queen Henrietta Howard (Phillip Howard) and her lovely court—joys of winning and sorrows of losing—Halloween Carnival—marching down aisle last for assemblies—roping Cupid at Valentine Party—SAT and college applications—Beta Convention—finally our rings—choosing of mascots and superlatives—Homecoming Parade and hours spent on floats—Pep Club and school spirit—in suspense before the Jr. Sr.—Macbeth—orginal book reports—French tapes and a new accent—real and unreal numbers and grades—Our Annual Day—and finally Graduation—no longer belonging in those Hallowed Halls but possessing the opportunities of the future and the golden memories of our days at Old Fuquay High.

Class Poem

An old man going a lone highway,
Came at the evening, cold and gray,
To a chasm vast and deep and wide,
Through which was flowing a sullen tide.
The old man crossed in the twilight dim
The sullen streams had no fears for him;
But he turned, when safe on the other side,
And built a bridge to span the tide.

“Old man,” said a fellow pilgrim near,
“You are wasting strength with building here.
Your journey will end with the ending day;
You never again must pass this way.
You have crossed the chasm, deep and wide,
Why build you a bridge at the eventide?”

The builder lifted his old, gray head.
“Good friend, in the path I have come,” he said,
“There followeth after me today
A youth whose feet must pass this way.
This chasm that has been naught to me
To that fair-haired youth may a pitfall be.
He, too, must cross in the twilight dim;
Good friend, I am building the bridge for him.”

Class Song

Sixty-six, we raise our song
In a melody
That will be for years to come
A lasting memory.

Through the years as we remember
All the friends we’ve known,
From that first day in September
How our dreams have grown.

With knowledge we have gained
We’ll reach our goal at last,
As we see our high school days
Fade into the past.
